

Death of Col. H. C. Lockwood
He was a Civil War Veteran and an Advocate of the Abolition of the Presidency.

Col. Henry Clay Lockwood, soldier, author, and lawyer, died in the Bellevue Hospital, yesterday after a short illness. He was 63 years old.

Col. Lockwood was the son of the late Gen. Munson I. Lockwood, for years County Clerk of Westchester County. He was educated for the bar, and enlisted in 1862 in the Union Army. He was appointed a Captain, and assigned to the staff of Brig. Gen. William H. Morris, who commanded a brigade in the Third of the Sixth Army Corps. Col. Lockwood participated in the battles of the Wilderness and Spottsylvania Court House. Later he served on the staffs of Gen. John H. M^akingale and Gen Ames. He was brevetted Major for gallantry at the storming of Fort Fisher in 1865, and was mustered out with that rank in 1866, after having served as recorder on various military commissions engaged in the trial of cases growing out of the war.

Returning to New York, Major Lockwood took up the practice of law. He was made Major of the Seventy-first Regiment, N. G., N. Y., in March, 1872, and Lieutenant-Colonel in September of the same year.

The first volume of his writings to attract attention was a volume entitled "The Abolition of the Presidency," a volume in which he advocated a plural executive, to be known as the Executive Council, which should be chosen in joint session by the two houses of Congress. Under those conditions, Col. Lockwood argued, true leadership would arise in Congress, and the Executive Council, upon adverse vote, must resign or appeal to the electorate.

Col. Lockwood's next work was "The Constitutional History of France," published in 1889, and he published two monographs entitled "A True History of the Army at Fort Fisher" and "Making a Monocrat."

Col. Lockwood was a member of Sumner Post, G. A. R., of the Loyal Legion, and of the Societies of the Army of the Potomac and the Army of the James. He was unmarried.

RESIDENCE.

Rooms are assigned the students in the same edifices that are occupied by the President and Professors, and their respective families.

INSTRUCTION.

The classes are divided into Sections, according to attainment, or choice of studies, and the several Sections are instructed by the President and Professors.

GOVERNMENT.

The Government is, for the most part, parental and preventive, and devolves on the President and resident Professors. Those students who do not cheerfully submit to it, are silently dismissed. No student is allowed to visit Taverns or Groceries; to be out of his room at night or to go out of town at any time, without permission; nor is any society allowed to hold its meetings at night.

EXERCISE.

Athletic exercises are encouraged, and ample grounds are furnished free of expense, for those who prefer devoting their hours of recreation to Agricultural pursuits.

COMMENCEMENT.

Commencement is on the 4th Wednesday in July; after which there is a vacation of six weeks.

VACATIONS.

There are two other vacations, the one in December, the other in April. The Seniors have no additional vacations, nor are there any holidays. It is desirable that students should either return home, or visit their friends during the vacations. And when parents cannot provide for this, the faculty should be apprized of it, that arrangements may be made in season to secure for them a proper residence.

MERIT ROLL.

An accurate and daily account of the delinquencies of every student, and also of the degree of his attainment, in conduct, scholarship and attendance, is kept, and the summing up of these items determines the place of each upon the MERIT ROLL; a copy of which items is transmitted to the parent.

EXAMINATIONS.

A committee is annually appointed, who examine the several classes publicly, at the close of each term, and make a written report thereof.
